

RANDOM ACTS OF LEADERSHIP

Leadership comes in many different forms, so let's wonder...

What does being a leader mean for you?

Circle the action you would like to try out...

- Give someone an unexpected message of thanks
- Actively listen to another student
- Help someone solve a problem
- Do something kind without being asked
- Set a good example online or in class
- Offer to help a teacher without being asked
- Offer to help another student
- Smile at someone
- Speak up and talk about an issue you are passionate about

Why did you choose this action?

Predict the impact of this action.

RECORD YOUR FINDINGS

Let's take some time to reflect...

What was the impact of your leadership action?

What was surprising?

How can you encourage others to take action for leadership in the way you have today?

MAKING YOUR OWN CHANGE

Think about a way you would like to make a difference in your...

Home:

Class:

School community:

Which of these actions are you most passionate about?

How might this action show leadership and help others?

Choose one (or more!) of your suggestions to make a difference.

Take action and then record your findings!

STEP IT UP!

It's one thing to be a leader, how can we encourage others to be leaders too?

Let's break it down...

Who would you like to reach?

Brainstorm ways you can achieve this.

Circle the way you think would work best!

How will your work encourage others to help or participate?

Take action and then record your findings!